ALDERMEN AND P. S. C. EXPRESS SYMPATHY.

Both the Board of Aldermen and the Public Service Commission passed resolutions yesterday in connection with the Titanic disaster. The Aldermanic resolution, introduced by Mr. Dowling and preceded by a long preamble, read:

"Resolved, by the Board of Aldermen for the people of the city of New York, that the sympathy and consideration of the metropolis of the Western Hemisphere be extended to the afflicted, here and elsewhere, on the disastrous visitation by which they have been overtaken. Their grief is our grief, and would it were in our power to assuage it."

The minute adopted by the Public Service Commission reads:

"As a department of the government of the city and State of New York, and in behalf of the city and State, the Public Service Commission for the First District hereby expresses its profound regret and sorrow that a tragedy of such magnitude as the sinking of the Titanic could have occurred on the great highway of transportation between the continents, and extends the deepest sympathy on behalf of the public of this port and State to the survivors and to the families and friends who are bereaved by this disaster; and mindful of the importance of adequate inquiry as to the means of preventing future loss of life from such a cause, this commission respectfully expresses its belief that the causes of this disaster and the means of preventing its recurrence should be the subject of inquiry by a properly constituted international tribunal."

Hotels Post Lists of Rescued.

In the lobbies of the more prominent hotels of the city lists of passengers reported saved from the Titanic were posted last night. The lists were altered from time to time, as additional names were received at the offices of the White Star Steamship Company. The lists were eagerly scanneh by guests and by persons in search of news of relatives and friends who were on board the ill-fated steamer.

BAD BARGAIN; CUT THROAT.

Finding that the profits of the candy store at No. 643 East Ninth street, which he bought a week ago, were not so good as he had expected, Samuel Linner cut his throat at the rear of the store about 6.30 this morning.

He was found by a man who entered the store to buy a paper and who ran to tell Linner's wife at their home at No. 646.

Linner was taken to Bellevue Hospital, where it was said that he would die.

BEWARE the lure of unreasonably low price player-pianos. Back of any proposition which seemingly enables you to buy a piano for less than its worth, lies future disappointment.
