

woke just resentment by attacks upon Americans or other foreign persons or property are working against the best interests and the honor of their country, for which the United States is known to hold and in the resolution is manifesting the greatest and most sincere friendship, and are seeking for their own selfish ends to burden the future of their countrymen with heavy obligations or enormous damages for their wrongful acts.

"How strongly the government of the United States deprecates even the very few cases of participation by its citizens in the present insurrectionary disturbances is well known to the people of Mexico, as was shown by the President's proclamation of March 2 and the various other acts of this government looking to the same end.

"The government of the United States must insist and demand that American citizens who may be taken prisoners, whether by one party or the other, participants in the present insurrectionary disturbances, shall be dealt with in accordance with the broad principles of equitable justice and humanity as well as in accordance with the principles of international law which may be involved, and to which the people of Mexico have given their assent and adherence in numerous international engagements.

"This government must hold the Mexican government strictly responsible for any departure from such principles.

Attitude of Orozco.

"Notwithstanding press reports that certain Mexican officials have announced a contrary policy, the government of the United States has every confidence in the disposition of the government of Mexico in the premises, and must request that appropriate instructions be immediately issued to the proper military officers and officials in the sense indicated.

"Letcher reports receiving a letter from Orozco, which states that in view of non-recognition of belligerency on the part of the United States the insurrectionary bands would refuse to recognize consular representatives of the United States, and that henceforth he should not address the military leader of the insurrection on behalf of this government.

"The department is sending Letcher a copy of the above and is directing him to deliver a copy to Orozco with the statement that it sets forth the attitude which must be assumed by the government, and directing him to make further representations as follows:

"The government of the United States is deeply concerned with the grave concern the practical murder under the positive order of one of your chief lieutenants of an American citizen, who was reported to have been taken prisoner during or at the end of a regular engagement, the prisoner said to have been dressed in regular uniform and obviously one of the regular forces of the established government of Mexico.

"The government of the United States must insist in so far as the treatment of American citizens taken prisoners, whatever force is concerned that the rules and principles accepted by civilized nations as controlling their actions in time of war shall be followed and observed, and the government of the United States must give notice to the Mexican government of such a course, and, indeed, any mistreatment of any American citizens, will be deeply resented by the American government and people and must be fully answered for by the Mexican people.

Action Is Inhumanity.

"You will also call this to the attention of the Mexican authorities, and will at the same time point out that press reports received here state that Gen. Villa has threatened that if Government orders American citizens taken prisoners from the federalists he will retaliate by murdering American citizens taken prisoners from the federalists. You will point out that such a course, and, indeed, any mistreatment of any American citizens, will be deeply resented by the American government and people and must be fully answered for by the Mexican people.

"HUNTINGTON WILSON."

PRESIDENT'S CRITICISED BY WASHINGTON CLERGY

Revoking of Anti-Garb Order for Indian Schools Causes Action.

That the action of the President of the United States in revoking the anti-garb order of Commissioner Robert G. Valentine forbidding teachers in the Indian schools to wear the garb of any religious order "is a profound disappointment to the great majority of the Christian citizenship of the republic," was the declaration voiced in resolutions passed by the Pastors' Federation, at a meeting at the M. C. C. building.

Nearly 100 ministers of the various Protestant churches of the District assembled to discuss the action of the President, and after a rising vote they adopted the resolutions presented by the executive committee of the federation.

"We earnestly protest," it was further set forth against the proposed action in Congress to appoint a Columbus day as a national holiday, because the demand for this holiday is based upon a very limited number of our people, and these being connected with one certain ecclesiastical, we believe it to be an attempt to secure a future saint's day as a national holiday, and thereby establish an exclusive permanent recognition of this ecclesiasticalism in our national life."

Referring again to the revocation of the order by the President, it was said: "It is not American and a complete surrender of the essential principle of our national life, which is the separation of church and state." It was added: "The President adds the immense influence of his name and position to the converting of the Indians to Roman Catholicism."

Dr. Radcliffe's Views.

Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Kelly, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, who is president of the federation, called on Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe for a statement of the hearing held by the Interior Department several days ago relative to the question at issue.

Dr. Radcliffe said that the impression seemed to be prevailing that the hearing would be satisfied with the gradual elimination of the priests and nuns from the schools by the gradual closing of this idea, he said, is distinctly a wrong one.

"The nose of the camel is in the tent," said Dr. Radcliffe with emphasis, "and we must see that it is thrust out, and that the rest of the camel follows."

Following Dr. Radcliffe, Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, pastor of the First Congregational Church, made brief addresses on the resolution. Dr. McKim declared there should be no amendments to the paper.

Dr. McKim said that the question of the complete separation of church and state must be zealously guarded by all true Americans and that he would be one of the first to oppose the proposition if nuns of the Episcopal church attempted to teach in the Indian schools in their garb.

PASSENGERS OF TITANIC SAFE ON OTHER VESSELS

no difference what she hit. The report should not cause any serious anxiety."

Good Chance of Rescue.

There was an excellent reason for belief in the earlier hours that, even though the Titanic was in dire straits, there was a fair chance that no lives would be lost. The Cape Race dispatch reported the weather as calm and clear, and in a reasonably quiet sea there is little danger in transfer of the passengers to the lifeboats, in which they might await with reasonable tranquillity the arrival of the Virginian from such principles.

It was difficult for even mariners to interpret the situation from the Marconi dispatches. They could not understand why it should be necessary to take off any passengers if the liner was sinking slightly at the bow, unless her captain felt that the water-tight compartments would give way.

Many Icebergs in Ocean.

The presence of an unusually large number of icebergs in the past of transatlantic liners was indicated by wireless last week. Twelve hours before the news of the Titanic's accident, reached the world the serious menace of the icebergs was pointed out by the arrival here of the Cunard line steamer Carmania, which reported having detected and avoided five big bergs, some of them more than 200 feet high.

The Carmania reported that the French steamer Niagara had had a worse experience, having bumped into two small bergs which punched holes in her hull. The Niagara had the experience on Thursday, and unless she has greatly reduced speed she should reach port some time today. The Titanic undoubtedly ran into this same icebank.

P. A. S. Franklin, vice president of the White Star line, said the following wireless message to Capt. E. S. Smith, the Titanic's commander, this morning: "Awaiting information from all particulars; probable disposition of passengers."

Has Confidence in Vessel.

At 9 o'clock this morning Mr. Franklin gave out the following statement: "We place absolute confidence in the Titanic. We believe the boat is absolutely unsinkable, and although she may have sunk at the head or bow we know that the boat would remain on the water. We do not attach any significance to the fact that there are no Marconi messages being received from the boat. We think it denotes nothing but the fact that the boat is in communication with other steamers, for she may have gotten off all the messages she wanted to send. We are not at all worried about the loss of the ship, but we are extremely sorry for the annoyance and inconvenience to our passengers and the traveling public.

"You can make our views as forceful as you like regarding the capabilities of the ship to withstand any exterior damage. We figure the Virginian of the Allan line will be along side the Titanic by 10 o'clock, and we figure the Olympic of the White Star line will be with the Titanic at 3 p.m., and the Baltic an hour later."

Mr. Franklin said he had received a wireless message from the Olympic saying she had talked by wireless with the Titanic at 4:23 o'clock this morning. He said he was waiting for further information. Mr. Franklin said:

An hour later Mr. Franklin authorized the following statement to be given: "No alarm for Titanic's passengers."
