2d Cabin Passengers Believed to Be Lost

A list of the second-class passengers carried by the Titanic is given below. The names of those reported, among the rescued have been struck from the list, leaving the names of those unaccounted for or dead. Many names of the rescued have doubtless been misspelled and otherwise made to appear different in the haste of wireless transmission. It is, therefore, probable that some of those counted among the missing will be numbered with the rescued when the Carpathia arrives with the survivors.
