

The EVENING JOURNAL
has more Subscribers than any other paper in Delaware.
That means a home paper.

The Evening Journal

Circulation of the Evening Journal
Yesterday Was 14,233

TWENTY-FOURTH YEAR—NO. 284 WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1912 10 PAGES ONE CENT

CARPATHIA, CARRYING 705 TITANIC SURVIVORS, EXPECTED TO DOCK IN NEW YORK TONIGHT, WHITE STAR LINE OFFICIALS SAY

BOOST FOR ROAD AT TRADE BOARD DINNER

"Board of Trade-duPont Boulevard Banquet" Here on May 8
GEN. DUPONT A GUEST OF HONOR

Following months of preparation for their annual banquet, the house and social features committee of the Wilmington Board of Trade this morning announced that the banquet, which will be known as The Board of Trade, duPont Boulevard Banquet, will be held on the evening of May 8, in the duPont Assembly Room, and will be a reception.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS CALL SATURDAY MEETING

Notices are being sent out for a meeting of the Republican County Committee to be held in Republican headquarters, No. 6 West Ninth street, on next Saturday afternoon for organization. Dr. L. H. Ball and Joseph C. Jolls are again mentioned for chairman and secretary of the county committee respectively.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED.

Building Inspector Cassidy issued a permit today to Fred A. Havens and Company, of Philadelphia, to erect an addition to the west mill of the Harlan and Hollingsworth Corporation at the foot of West street, to cost $11,000.

TO GROW FLORIDA FRUIT.

M. E. Terhush, contract manager of the Wilmington and Philadelphia Traction Company, has purchased a 40 acre farm in Florida and will leave here for that state next week. Mr. Terhush intends to devote his time to raising grape fruit and oranges. The fellow workers of Mr. Terhush have arranged a supper for him on Saturday evening at the Hotel Wilmington. Mr. Terhush came here about 18 months ago from New York State.

YOUTHS GO BACK TO SUSSEX FOR TRIAL

State Detective Fred Walls, of Georgetown, and John Armstrong, a special officer of the Pennsylvania railroad, stationed at Middletown, yesterday afternoon took to Georgetown John Hill, a white youth aged 19 years, and George Hudson, colored, aged 31 years, to answer several charges of burglary.

BOYS PAY FOR BROKEN WINDOW

Eight boys were before the Juvenile Court yesterday afternoon charged with breaking windows in the plant of E. F. Peterson, Chestnut and Harrison streets. The boys were directed to pay for the windows broken, as well as the cost in the case.

GROCERS' MEETING.

The weekly meeting of the Retail Grocers' Association was held at No. 702 Market street last night. Only routine business was transacted, except the matter of holding a street carnival during the week of the Delaware State Fair Association.

A HOUSEHOLD INVENTORY.

House cleaning time in many a household. Time for rearrangement and readjustment for many. A good time to take inventory—such as a business term may be applied to the home.

FIREMEN TO MEET.

The Wilmington Volunteer Firemen's Relief Association will meet tonight at the Independence Company's house.

DOWN-STATE ASKING FOR BOULEVARD

Millsboro Residents and Clayton Town Council Take Formal Action
WANT LEGISLATION TO HASTEN ROAD WORK

Secretary George H. McGovern of the Board of Trade has received a copy of the action taken by citizens of Millsboro on Monday declaring in favor of construction of the duPont Boulevard and recommending such legislation as will enable completion of the road this year. The communication from Millsboro is as follows:

MAN IN JAIL NOT BIGAMIST WOMAN SAYS

Chester Police Release Innocent Man Who Was Held Two Days
COMPLAINING WIFE SAYS RIGHT SPENCE IS WEST

MASON DIES ON THE GALLOWS

LONDON, April 18.—Frederick Henry Seddons, the first Mason ever sentenced to death in England by a brother Mason, so far as known, was hanged on the gallows of Pentonville today.

MR. HAWKINS' BODY HERE.

The body of Samuel Hawkins, who died at Atlantic City, N. J., on Tuesday night, arrived in this city this morning and was removed to the home of Mr. Hawkins' son, William W. Hawkins, No. 107 West Twenty-third street, by Undertaker James T. Chandler. The funeral will take place from that address but no arrangements have yet been made as to the time.

SKIDDING AUTO BRINGS BROKEN RIBS FOR DRIVER

Frank A. Styne, of No. 1620 Delaware avenue, employed as chauffeur by Edgar M. Pennypacker, of No. 1112 Broome street, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon when Mr. Pennypacker's car, which Styne was driving skidded into one of the abutments of the Pennsylvania railroad bridge, which spans the Philadelphia pike at Crum Lynne.

PREACHERS WILL WARN AGAINST TRACK WALKING

Col. Jonathan W. Aydon, publicity agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, addressed members of the Presbytery of New Castle at Dover yesterday. Col. Aydon spoke on "The Danger of Trespassing on the Railroad Company's Right of Way."

DEMOCRATS CONFER ON SPECIAL SESSION PLAN

Special to THE EVENING JOURNAL. DOVER, Del., April 18.—From the viewpoint of attendance, the conference of Democratic members of the Legislature was disappointing here this morning to act on Governor Pennell's letter inquiring whether each member favors calling a special session of the Legislature and whether or not each would pledge himself to vote for the duPont Boulevard amendments.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

INCENDIARY ATTEMPTS TO FIRE HOUSE AND FACTORY

Special to THE EVENING JOURNAL. LAUREL, Del., April 18.—An attempt was made by incendiaries last night to burn the Marvill Package Plant and the mansion of J. Dallas Marvill, formerly the home of late Governor Marvill.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican Club of the Sixth ward and other Republican voters, had an old-fashioned smoker at Turn Hall last evening when the issues confronting the Republican party were discussed by Congressman William H. Heald, State Senator Charles R. Miller, Th. R. Albert Price and Thomas A. D. Hutson, who presided over the meeting.

ONE GETS OFF THE OTHER FINED

John Gillespie and William McHugh were in City Court today charged by Chief of Police Black with drunkenness and begging, but McHugh, who was willing to take the pledge, was dismissed. Gillespie also offered to take the pledge, but the court, after being advised that he had been lodging at the police station of late, imposed a fine of $3 and costs.

REPUBLICANS HAVE SMOKER

Members of the Unity Republican